

VRSP LAW: ARE YOU COMPLIANT?

Companies of 10 eligible employees and up must offer a group savings plan that allows payroll deductions at the latest on December 31 of a given year if there are:

- at least 10 eligible employees on June 30 of the given year and
- at least 5 eligible employees on December 31 of the previous year.

The law states that an employer who contravenes this obligation is guilty of an offense and is liable to a fine ranging from $500 to $10,000, which may be doubled in the event of a second offense. Note that a business whose activities fall under federal jurisdiction is not affected by this law.

What is an eligible employee?

- salaried as defined in the Act Respecting Labour Standards of age 18 or over;
- has completed at least 1 year of service, as defined in the Act Respecting Labour Standards.

How to comply?

The government created the VRSP in order to facilitate compliance with the law. However, it is perhaps not as flexible and customizable as other group retirement plans. Group Censeo, in collaboration with your advisor, can help you implement an appropriate group retirement plan according to your needs:

- Group Registered Retirement Savings Plan (group RRSP);
- Deferred Profit Sharing Plan (DPSP)¹;
- Group Tax-Free Savings Account (group TFSA);
- Simplified Pension Plan (SPP);
- Voluntary Retirement Savings Plan (VRSP);
- Registered Pension Plan (RPP).

¹ The DPSP must be combined with another plan such as an RRSP to comply with the law.
